

Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme (SICAP)

Community Engagement Worker Job & Description & Person Specification

The SICAP Community Engagement Worker will be employed under the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme (SICAP) and will report to the SICAP Manager. The Community Engagement Worker will work on an outreach basis with disadvantaged individuals and groups within areas targeted under the SICAP Strategic Plan for County Kildare. This is a full-time position which involves flexible working hours. Flexibility across the Social Inclusion and Community Activation Programme (SICAP) will be a feature of this role.

Purpose

The focus of the work will be to directly address social exclusion and the negative impacts of poverty and marginalization within communities. The Community Engagement Worker will do this by applying a community development approach to strengthening the capacity of the community to work together and with key voluntary and statutory organisations and structures.

Core Responsibilities

The SICAP Community Engagement Worker will be responsible for:

- Establishing contact with individuals and groups in local communities especially disadvantaged communities targeted under SICAP.
- Engaging in outreach work in local communities to assess local needs and develop relationships including door to door and street work, meeting local voluntary groups and service providers.
- Listening to the views of the residents to identify the barriers that are preventing local community engagement.
- Supporting local communities in collective action to address local issues and develop community initiatives.
- Linking individuals and groups in disadvantaged communities to resources and supports available through state agencies and other service providers.
- Linking individuals and groups to resources available through CKLP including SICAP, RDP, TUS / RSS, and Community Employment.
